CONSENT DECREE

INTRODUCTION

This civil action was instituted by the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (the "Commission") against Regis Corp., d/b/a SmartStyle ("Regis"), pursuant to Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended, 42 U.S.C § 2000e, et seq., and Title I of the Civil Rights Act of 1991, to remedy the unlawful employment practices alleged in the Complaint filed on August 27, 2008. The Complaint alleged that Regis failed to reasonably accommodate Ms. Kaneika Ramsey's sincerely held religious belief that she could not work on Sunday and discharged her because of her religious belief.

Defendant denies that it discriminated against Kaneika Ramsey. The Commission and Regis have agreed to this Consent Decree to settle all of the claims involved in this lawsuit. The parties to this action desire to avoid the additional expense and delay in the litigation of this case.

In the event this Consent Decree is not approved or does not become final, it shall not be admissible in evidence in any subsequent proceeding in this action.

This Decree constitutes the complete and exclusive agreement between the Commission and Regis with respect to the matters referred to herein. No waiver, modification or amendment of any provision of this Decree shall be effective unless made in writing. No representations or inducements to compromise this action have been made between the parties hereto, other than those recited or referenced in this Decree.

The Court has reviewed the terms of this Consent Decree in light of the applicable laws and regulations, the representations of counsel for all parties, and hereby approves the Consent Decree.

It is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

I. JURISDICTION

The United States District Court for the Middle District of Tennessee, at Nashville, has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this litigation and will retain jurisdiction over this Decree for the purposes of enforcement and dispute resolution.

II. SCOPE OF DECREE

A. This Consent Decree resolves all issues and claims arising out of the Commission's complaint in this case, Civil Action No. 3:08-0821, alleging unlawful employment practices by Defendant based on Charge No 494-2007-01277 filed by Kaneika Ramsey. This Consent Decree shall not be considered in any manner to be dispositive of any other charge which is or may be pending before any office of the Commission other than Charge No. 494-2007-01277.

B. The provisions of this Consent Decree shall be effective and binding upon the parties to this action for two years after the date of its entry by the Court.

III. INJUNCTIVE RELIEF

Defendant, its officers, agents, employees, and all persons acting in concert with Defendant are enjoined from failing to reasonably accommodate the sincerely held religious beliefs of any employee.

IV. MODIFICATION OF POLICY

Within 180 days after entry of the Decree, Regis will amend its Employee Handbook ("New Employee Orientation Packet") to provide specific instructions for obtaining religious accommodation; and amend its Management Handbook to provide specific instructions for granting religious accommodation, including a form which employees or management will use to reduce all requests to writing.

Regis will provide written notification to all employees of the modification/amendment of its Employee Handbook and Management Handbook to specifically outline the changes.

V. TRAINING

Defendant shall provide religious accommodation awareness training to certain hourly, supervisory and management personnel in the middle Tennessee area (see Exhibit A) according to the following terms:

(a) Defendant will retain a labor and employment specialist with at least 10 years experience to conduct the training of LaRhonda Chaney and all salon managers in her area. Hourly employees in LaRhonda Chaney's area (excluding salon managers) will be trained by a regional manager who has completed the training for managers described herein.

(b) The labor and employment specialist will use the Commission's Compliance Manual, Section 12, Religious Discrimination, to conduct the training. See www.eeoc.gov/policy/docs/religion.html.

(c) The training session will include at least one hour of training for the hourly employees described above and three hours of training for LaRhonda Chaney and the salon managers in her area.

(d) The training topics for all employees will include, among other things, the definition of religion, what is a sincerely held religious belief under Title VII, what is prohibited conduct under Title VII, reasonable accommodation, and common methods of accommodation in the workplace. Management employees will have additional training regarding employer liability and employer best practices,

(e) The training will include a discussion of the policy for requesting religious accommodation as outlined in the revised handbook (see Section IV: Modification of Policy), and will include examples of reasonable accommodations.

(f) Defendant will conduct the training session within 180 days after the date of the entry of this Consent Decree by the Court.

(g) Defendant will require all attendees to sign and date an attendance form.

(h) Defendant will administer a test, developed by the trainer, to LaRhonda Chaney. After completion of the training, the trainer will review the test with Ms. Chaney to ensure that she understands her obligations under Title VII as it relates to religious accommodation.

(i) Ms. Chaney will sign a separate form stating that she received the training conducted in the workplace, that she understands her obligations under Title VII and that she may be subject to termination for violations of Title VII as it relates to religious accommodation.

(j) Defendant will send the completed forms required by (g), (h), and (i) above, to Sally Ramsey, Senior Trial Attorney, at the Commission's Nashville Area office.

(k) Defendant will repeat this training annually for the duration of this Consent Decree. Reports of the training will be sent to the Commission as described in Section VII of this Decree.

A. Defendant will provide two reports to the Commission. Defendant will submit the first report 12 months after entry of the Decree and the second report 23 months after entry of the Decree. Each report will describe all requests for religious accommodation at Defendant's middle Tennessee locations, describe the accommodation offered to the employee or, if no accommodation was offered, describe the reason for not offering an accommodation. Each report will describe Defendant's training of supervisors, managers and hourly employees in the requirements of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended, as set forth herein.
